

Spring 2023 Courses

Clay County residents age 60+ pay only $15 for each of these 3 sponsored courses.

Classes held at Northland Innovation Center, 6899 N Oak Trafficway
4th floor in suite of Northwest Missouri State University

Music Inspired by the Natural World with instructor Don Dagenais
Tuesdays, February 14, 21, 28, 2:00 – 4:00 pm

Explore classical music inspired by works of nature, from the wonders of the earth to the plant and animal kingdoms as well.

Why Are We Here? A Very Brief Introduction to Philosophy with instructor James Gaither

Wednesdays, March 22, 29, April 5, 2:00 – 4:00 pm

Humans have wondered about the nature of the universe and our place in it. We'll explore attempts to answer questions about our purpose and how we can know the truth about it all.

Your Space Enabled Life with instructor Thomas Gray
Thursdays, April 13, 20, 27, 2:00 to 4:00 pm

We'll examine global dependency on space-based capabilities and look at how we depend on those systems, such as GPS, satellite locations and their role in national security and commerce.

To register: www.osher.ku.edu or 785-864-6779

(Many more classes in other locations are listed in the Osher catalog.)

- Would be interested in volunteering for an Osher class? This would entail setting out coffee break items (all provided), distributing instructor's materials, making sure room is clean after class.
- Questions? Contact Paula Zigmond, Clay County Senior Services, 816-595-0086; paula@claycoseniors.org